

Graduate Certificate in Laws* (GradCertLaws – 60 points)

* Subject TECa 1001a.

The regulations can be read in conjunction with the General Regulations of the University.

1. Version

- (a) The Regulations came into force on 1 January 2025.
- (b) The Regulations were amended in 2025.

2. Variations

The regulations apply to all students at the Auckland Law School, The Executive Dean of Law, and the Registrar of the University of Auckland.

3. The structure of the qualification

The structure of the Graduate Certificate in Laws is as follows:

- (a) be credited towards a total of 60 credits from the Schedule E: Executive Certificate in Law Degree of the Bachelor of Laws; and
- (b) be eligible for a graduate diploma in Law at the Auckland Law School.

4. Admission to the qualification

The following students are eligible for admission:

- (a) a student who has been awarded the degree of Bachelor of Laws from a New Zealand institution; or
- (b) a student who has been awarded the degree of Bachelor of Laws from a New Zealand institution and a degree or certificate in a related field; or
- (c) a student who has been awarded an Academic Excellence Scholarship; and
- (b) a student who has been awarded a diploma in Law at the Auckland Law School.

5. Subjects

There are 12 subjects that are available for the qualification.

6. Time limits

The time limit for the qualification is 24 months.

7. Transfers of credit, substitutions and cross-credits

The regulations apply to the Credit Recognition and Transfer Regulations of the University.

8. Progression

The regulations apply to the General Regulations of the University and add additional provisions.

9. Honours, Distinction and Merit

Honours, Distinction and Merit are awarded for the qualification.

10. Exit and Upgrade Pathways to other Qualifications

- (a) A student who has completed the requirements for the qualification can apply to the Auckland Law School, The Executive Dean of Law, and the Registrar of the University of Auckland to be admitted to the Graduate Diploma in Law.
- (b) A student who has completed the requirements for the qualification can apply to the Auckland Law School, The Executive Dean of Law, and the Registrar of the University of Auckland to be admitted to the Graduate Diploma in Law and a degree or certificate in a related field.