Schedule to the Regulations for Te Pourua Reo: Diploma in Te Reo Maori (DipTeReoMaori)

Note: The diploma normally includes courses at 100, 200 and 300-level in a single language. Courses selected will, however, be appropriate to the candidate's previous learning and experience. The diploma may include up to 0.34 EFTS in Maori and Indigenous Studies courses from the Schedule to these regulations.

The programme of study for all candidates must be approved by the Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences, who will be advised by the Head of the School of Maori and Indigenous Studies. In exceptional cases, the Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences may approve substitute courses from outside the Schedule.

Not all courses will necessarily be offered in any one year; please consult with the School to find out which courses are available.

Notes: Candidates are reminded of the following points:

- 1 Candidates for postgraduate scholarships must submit their theses in time for the results to be known before 1 March of the year of the award.
- 2 See also General Course and Examination Regulations D and Land Guidelines for Masters Thesis Work
- 3 If a thesis is not submitted by 1 March, the candidate becomes liable for further tuition fees
- 4 If the thesis at its first presentation is unsatisfactory the examiners may, with approval of the Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences, permit the candidate to revise the thesis and re-submit it by a specified date
