Other Regulations

The full and formal wording of regulations about general matters may be obtained from the University of Canterbury Policy Library (www.canterbury.ac.nz/ucpolicy). Students and sta should check the website regularly for updates.

Academic Dress Regulations and Specifications

- Members of the University attending or taking part in public ceremonies for which academic dress is prescribed must wear the academic dress proper to their degrees.
- The academic dress worn by persons who have had their degrees conferred by the University of Canterbury must conform in respect of shape, size, material and colour to the standard specifications determined by Council and maintained by the Registrar.

Standard Specifications

1. University Officers

- (a) The robe of the Chancellor is a Peony Red (colour: B.C.C.37) damask gown embroidered with gold and gold lace; the trencher is Peony Red with gold lace and gold tassel.
- (b) The robe of the Pro-Chancellor is a Peony Red damask gown embroidered with gold and gold lace; the trencher is Peony Red with a gold tassel.
- (c) The robe for the Vice-Chancellor is a Peony Red damask gown embroidered with gold; the trencher is Peony Red with a gold tassel.
- (d) The robe for the Registrar is a Peony Red silk gown embroidered with gold; the trencher is Peony Red with a Peony Red tassel.

2.

- v. The hood for the Degree of Doctor of
- aterial as the lining.

 ne hood for the Degree of Doctor of nilosophy is of the same material and olour as the facings of the gown and ined with Slate Grey (B.C.C.154).

 The hood for a Doctor's degree other than that of Doctor of Philosophy is entirely of silk in the EFF0009seAa-ilosophy3gulati ()TjEMC ETEMC /Span Æang (en-GBB in the ...1dC /Span &O ...1dC /Span & vi. The hood for a Doctor's degree other than

- (c) Restrictions on parking in areas designated by appropriate signs shall apply from 8.00am to 5.00pm Monday to Friday from 1 February to 30 November each year. The restrictions in respect to parking in reserved, disabled, and visitor spaces, or in areas not otherwise marked out for parking shall apply day and night throughout the year.
- (a) Any person who fails to observe the requirements of this statute commits an o ence against this statute.
 - (b) Any person who commits an o ence against this statute will be liable to a fine for each o ence and may be issued with an o ence notice by a Parking Attendant/Security O cer.
 - (c) Fines payable in respect of o ences committed under this statute, the time for payment thereof and the amount of reduction thereof for prompt payment, if any, shall be as determined by the Vice-Chancellor and specified in the University Calendar from time to time.
 - (d) The Facilities and Operational Services Manager (Facilities Management) if so requested by a member of the University sta or a student upon whom a fine or other penalty has been imposed hereunder, will review, or arrange for a review of the amount of any such fine and/or its imposition. Such review shall be initiated by written application, to be made to the Facilities and Operational Services Manager within 14 days of the date of the o ence notice, setting out details of - the fine or other penalty in respect of which review is sought, the reason the review is being sought and all information upon which the application is based. The review will take place in accordance with any rules established from time to time.

- Parking permits will be issued to University sta and students on application and payment of the appropriate fees. Fees payable shall be as determined by the Vice-Chancellor from time to time
- The issue of a parking permit only authorises the holder thereof to park on the campus and does not guarantee the availability of a park.
- Permits shall be a xed in accordance with the instructions provided, and shall be removed before the disposal of the vehicle.
- 10. Permits remain current until they expire or are revoked or when the student or sta member to whom they are issued ceases to be a student or member of sta of the University. Any parking permit may be revoked by the Vice-Chancellor if the holder thereof commits any o ence against these regulations.
- 11. The Parking and Tra c Regulations 1995 are hereby repealed.
- This statute, entitled the Parking and Tra c Statute 2003, shall come into force on 1 January 2003

Note: Details of permit charges and fines (and provision for the reduction of fines for prompt payment) and review procedures are available from the Registrar.