

Cyber Security

• Identify • Stop • Report

What is a cyber security incident?

A cyber security incident is when something goes wrong with the computer systems that could put our information at risk.

It could be someone getting into our systems without permission or changing things on our computers without us knowing.